

Helping to navigate job market

COMEPASS Employment Services will undergo a massive expansion.

Seven new Comepass offices will open after its Oxley-based parent organisation, Westside Community Services, won significant new contracts.

New services will operate at Ipswich (Mondays), Capalaba (Tuesdays and Thursdays), Inala (Thursdays), Mitchelton (Mondays and Wednesdays), Nundah (Tuesdays and Thursdays), Victoria Point (Mondays and Wednesdays) and Upper Mt Gravatt (Mondays and Wednesdays).

The offices will help job seekers with disabilities to find employment.

Comepass has negotiated the use of office space with Sarina Russo Job Access and will be operating from Sarina Russo Job Access offices in each of those suburbs (except Inala and Ipswich) from 9am to 5pm.

In Inala, Comepass will operate from The HUB Neighbourhood Centre on Thursdays from 9am to 4.30pm for three months.

In Ipswich Comepass will be at Max Network Employment's office on Mondays.

Managing director Tony Smith said: "We'll be working closely with employers in all these areas to help them tap into this valuable candidate pool.

"We help job seekers overcome barriers to worthwhile employment that are often associated with a range of disabilities."

For more details, phone Comepass on 3710 2016.

Trade expo is in town

THE Business to Business Trade Expo will be kicking off at Ipswich Civic Hall tomorrow.

The event, which is organised by the Ipswich Region Chamber of Commerce and Industry Inc, gives local businesses a great opportunity to promote their goods and services.

Special guest Simon Tupman, author of the recently released book Why Entrepreneurs Should Eat Bananas, will be a guest speaker at the event, which is being supported by Ipswich City Council.

The expo will feature three sections: a trade show from 9am to 5pm; 30-60 minute workshops and a business leaders' luncheon from noon-2.30pm.

The expo is open to all members of the public.

For further information on the event phone Ipswich Region Chamber of Commerce and Industry Inc on 3282 8688.
